

High global agreement can mask weak perturbation specificity

